Business Lunch Talk about Future Topics, 8th October 2009

Venue:	Helmholtz Office, Rue du Trône 98, 1050 Brussels, Phone: +32 02 5000970
Organization:	Technology Strategy Board, TSB (A. Hooper)
	Forschungszentrum Jülich, PtJ, Phone: +49 (0) 2461-61-3545 (G. Schumacher)
Moderation:	Vladimir Maly, Helmholtz Office Brussels
12.00	Arrival of the participants, lunch and coffee
12.45	Opening Susan Kentner (Helmholtz Association - Brussels Office) and Heike Bauer (BMBF - Federal Ministry of Education and Research)
12.55	Renzo Tomellini (Unit RTD G 3) Importance of Roadmaps and European Technology Platforms
13.05	Robin Young (Materials KTN) Materials for Green Cars
13.25	Ulrich Bast (Siemens AG) Inorganic Functional Materials: Trends and Challenges,
13.45	Christian Inglis (Technology Strategy Board) UK Nanomaterials Strategy
14.05	Peter Weber (BMW Group) Changeability in Automobile Production
14:25	 Discussion What are the answers of nanotechnology and materials and production technologies to the future challenges in society? How can topics be implemented in future NMP WPs? How will the Public-Private-Partnerships influence the future NMP WPs?
15:00	End of the event; Coffee and possibility for informal discussions